Life-Changing Weekends

Michelle A. Hardwick and Release...Peace are delighted to host a series of weekend experiences for self-development and growth. If you have a keen interest in your evolution and a desire to expand your awareness about life, yourself and others; then these weekends are for you.

Weekend Number Six

Vision & wisdom - 3rd & 4th February 2018 from 10am - 6pm

This is the sixth in the new series of The Seven Wonders of the Soul Weekends in Skibbereen, West Cork, Ireland. Each weekend explores a different Wonder of the Soul, and each gives you an opportunity to stretch from the ordinary to the extraordinary, from the Earth to the Heavens. Each weekend shares deep insights and potent tools to assist you to:

- begin to feel grounded
- start a journey to become more whole, connected and aligned with you
- understand more about your life, yourself and others
- become inspired, clear, courageous, confident, free and empowered
- feel positivity, peace, clarity
- move deeper into the truth of who you are
- explore your inner world
- begin to trust and express yourself more fully
- clarify your emotions
- recognise, process and release imbalances, patterns and behaviours

Weekend Six includes:

The sixth weekend in this series is about understanding about wisdom, clarity and intuition. This next step is also vital as it continues to build upon the firm inner foundation of self-esteem and confidence that we began in Weekend One; the inner harmony and balance of Weekend Two; the will, power and prosperity of Weekend Three; the love, self-love, compassion and acceptance of Weekend Four and communication, speaking your truth and creativity in Weekend Five. The topics throughout this weekend are:

- Developing intuition, perception and insight
- Understanding the skills of manifestation
- Connecting to your own wisdom and understanding
- Gaining a sense of verbal expression
- Healing a lack of clarity
- Releasing insensitivity and the need to ridicule
- Letting go of the inability to follow through with creative plans

Nurturing Location

The seven residential, all-inclusive weekends are held every 3-4 months over a 2 year period and are located in peaceful, quiet, rural and positively energized locations in and around Dublin and West Cork, Ireland.

Be Prepared for Change

These weekends give you a chance to take precious time away and reconnect to and with yourself. Be prepared for change. Both days are filled with a variety of processes to help you grow and evolve. A variety of experiences are available for you, including:

Group Sharing and Guidance: Take part in the weekend. Enjoy group discussions with like-minded individuals and uncover more about your life, yourself and your journey. Receive spiritual mentoring and enlightening guidance

Personal Experience: The group size ranges from 8-16 people, which ensures an intimate and tailor-made experience. Absorb the teachings and information more deeply in this small group and get to know yourself and everyone else in a much more personal way

Group Process: Experience guided, healing meditations; deep relaxation and hypnotherapy; regression; past-life regression; future-life progression; generational healing and NLP (NeuroLinguistic Programming) – all customized to your needs

Nature: Explore the beauty of the environment. Watch breath-taking sunrises and sunsets. Expand into the clear starry Irish skies. Walk through ancient woodlands and forests – and if that sounds like too much effort, relax, stretch out and cozy-up in front of the large, warm open fire (during the Winter) or enjoy time alone and reflect on the wisdom shared in the group

Journaling: At the start and end of each day take time and space for yourself to journal, read, breathe and integrate

Cuisine: Relish delicious, simple, healthy, vegetarian/vegan meals. A variety of fresh and tasty hot, cold and raw dishes will be served to you for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Gluten & sugar free options as well as special-diet meals are available upon request. Do give us plenty of notice so we can ensure your dietary needs are perfectly met!

Refreshments: Enjoy hot drinks and snacks mid-morning and afternoon. Sit with group members in/outside or just absorb the peace and beauty of the natural surroundings

Accommodation: Sleep deeply in one of the beautifully designed, clean, comfortable, en-suite bedrooms. Depending on your preference and budget, choose either a shared room or private and single accommodation

Non-Religious: Feel free to be yourself and express your true feelings in a safe, supported, confidential, non-judgmental, respectful and welcoming group. The weekends can be enjoyed by anyone regardless of faith or non-faith

Home Practice*: When you return home you will receive lots of information via email link. This includes the meditation recordings which you can listen to regularly to help you continue your inner journeys. Take time to complete the exercises sent, as these can expand your awareness between each of the weekends too

Self-Discovery: These weekends help support you through a process of inner discovery, evolution and enlightenment, combining time for self-exploration together with the group.

Transformation: The weekend experience is deep, transformative, inspirational, and pragmatic. There will be opportunities over the weekend to let-go and eliminate anything that is no longer essential to your health, well-being and happiness through a combination of in-depth self-exploration, group sharing and discussion.

Support: Michelle creates an atmosphere that is supportive, safe to share and discuss. The more you choose to release over the weekend, the more free you'll be to achieve your potential!

Camaraderie: the connection created in the group with the other participants is profound. The wisdom, the honesty and the amazing minds working together all offer a powerful gift of investigation and examination – unlike anything you've experienced before.

Preparation for the Weekend

A document will be emailed to you after registration and payment. To get the most from your weekend please ensure you read it, reflect on the questions asked, make any notes you feel you

This Weekend is NOT for you if

- You do not want to change
- You are not ready to help take the next step your evolution or be part of a life-changing intensive experience
- You prefer not to discuss any of your past, previous challenges nor insights with anyone else, instead preferring a one-on-one consultation
- You do not want to commit to two days without wifi, or phone coverage in an environment that nurtures self- & group-exploration

Insurance

It is your responsibility to organise suitable travel and health insurance. Although we strongly encourage you to do so, you acknowledge that Release...Peace is not in the business of providing insurance products and cannot be held liable if your failure to arrange suitable insurance coverage leaves you exposed, medically, financially or otherwise.

Integration Time

Know that these weekends are not an instant 'miracle cure'. It is recommended that you take time to integrate all that has happened during the weekend. The post-weekend phase is also crucial to your healing and growth. You are actively encouraged to continue your evolution with your own Home Practice*.

Additional Support

There may be times when you need to explore a situation more deeply; resolve a challenge or understand why things are occurring in your life by discussing this with Michelle. Together you can agree on the best way forward. To help you address what it is you would like to change, Michelle may suggest an additional one-on-one consultation. This can be extremely beneficial in helping you continue the processing you began at the weekend or review the concepts in greater depth; gain new understanding from the experiences you've had; or receive extra support in applying what you learned to your career, your life, relationships and on your journey. Remember if in doubt, reach out – Michelle is only an email/phone call away.

"Thank You so much for organising, facilitating and offering so much of yourself in all our joint healing. Thank you for giving me the space to reflect and heal and share my heart. The location was such a part of the weekend and I loved hearing how you were guided there. We all agreed the food was amazing all weekend. Just noticing how I am supported by other energies - books appearing, radio 'messages' - you know the usual holding healing energies that surround us all, is helping me. Thank you for the extra material you sent on. I hope our paths cross again soon. Take care and thanks again".
